

Professional Liability for Insurance Companies

COVERAGE HIGHLIGHTS

Professional liability coverage protects you from unpredictable claims handling.

Why you and your organization need protection

Insurance companies provide a variety of services to policyholders and customers including loss control, premium financing, personal injury rehabilitation and perhaps most important, claim handling.

Claim handling involves serving policyholders during the critical time after a loss occurs. In the course of seeking the best resolution for all interested parties, insurance companies face many exposures. Time, distance, injured parties, weather, regulations, construction costs, legal considerations, are but a few of the factors that present challenges during the claim handling process.

Coverage highlights

You can protect your company with professional liability coverage through SelectOne+[®]. This product is focused on the needs of insurance companies and has the flexibility to offer specific coverage options to fit your needs.

Additionally, you'll have the option to maintain a separate limit of liability, or to share limits with your management liability, employment practices and fiduciary liability insuring agreements.

Risk management services

Travelers is proud to offer its Good Faith Training Seminar as part of the SelectOne+ product for Insurance Companies. Many of our clients have given this one of a kind program rave reviews, which is offered at no charge to primary Insurance Company Professional customers.

When the unexpected happens and the process doesn't go as planned, protect your business from costly exposures.

Continuing education credits are currently available in some states and can be applied for in advance of training in many states. Please inquire when planning your seminar.
